500,000 Osun farmers to attend agritech exhibition

OSUN State Cooperatives Farmers Union has reiterated its commitment to successful hosting of the first international agricultural exhibition and conference tagged Agritech Nigeria Osun 2018 in Nigeria. The union, at a meeting to endorse the Agritech Nigeria Osun 2018 event in Osogbo at the weekend, said they would mobilise their over 500,000 members in the state to the event. The farmers said that while all farmers would be mobilised for the programme, scheduled for November 20 at the Ilesha Knowledge Stadium, they called on the organisers to ensure that different agricultural companies are equally mobilised to exhibit their products and services at the event. "We discovered that agriculture has gone beyond the seas to practice in Nigeria and Africa. Farmers in Osun State are more than 500,000, dealing in different sub-sectors of agriculture. We are large scale farmers and agronomists," said the Executive Director, Agritech Nigeria Osun 2018, Mr. Babatunde Maye. He commended the involvement of unions for endorsing the programme and the process of mobilising their members to attend the event.
